Connecticut Mortgage Bankers Association, Inc.

The CMBA is a non-profit association formed in 1984. The purpose of the association is:

- ✦ To promote the welfare of the mortgage lending industry and related service providers in the state of Connecticut and to improve its service to the community.
- ✦ To encourage among its members sound ethical business practices in the origination and servicing of real estate mortgage loans.
- ✦ To sponsor meetings for the discussion of real estate mortgage concerns and to sponsor educational and research projects designed to alleviate those concerns.
- ✦ To provide a forum for new ideas related to the industry.
- ✦ To cooperate with public & private agencies and the public at large in all matters relating to sound mortgage lending with the objective of strengthening the economic base of the community.
- ✦ To provide a platform from which the members of the mortgage lending industry can express their views on practices and legislation affecting the industry.

Your Legislative Resource

CMBA has protected the profitability of Connecticut lenders for over 25 years. The association uses a portion of membership dues to lobby state and federal legislators on behalf of the mortgage lending industry.
