The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act is the most significant tax legislation enacted since 1986. During this program, we will cover the new mortgage interest and pass-through entity deductions rules, as well as other changes to itemized deductions for individuals. We will also discuss the corporate and general business tax provisions of the bill, including new limitations on business deductions, enhancements to expensing of capital expenditures and the other relevant topics.

Moderator: Norman Roos, Robinson + Cole, LLP

Speaker: Kevin Powers, Tax Partner, Crowe Horwath, LLP
